[redacted] was advised as to the identities of the interviewing agents and the purpose of the interview and the fact the terms of his agreement with the United States Attorney's Office required him to be totally candid. In addition [redacted] was advised of his rights as contained in FD-395 "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form, after which he indicated he understood his rights and he voluntarily waived those rights. [redacted] then advised as follows:

[redacted] made available Check Number [redacted] from the California Canadian Bank (CCB), Account Number [redacted]. Said account was a personal account for [redacted] and the above mentioned check was in the amount of [redacted]. As previously mentioned [redacted] advised the [redacted] was deposited into his personal account at Bank of Irvine, Account Number [redacted]. At this point [redacted] of that deposit was redeposited into Account Number [redacted] which is the account of Hercules Research Corporation. [redacted] advised the remaining [redacted] stayed in the personal Bank of Irvine account. [redacted] does not recall if any portion of the [redacted] was used as a pay off concerning any CCB loan. [redacted] advised that as a general rule if a pay off was to be made, the money would come from the loan proceeds of the loan, which had just been approved.
